

Trent Morrow

General Counsel

Trent Morrow is responsible for the oversight of the litigation and risk management needs for W. L. Butler as General Counsel, he is accountable for all legal affairs within the company's construction operations; including contract negotiations, managing all claims and litigation, managing insurance issues and disputes, performing regular risk-assessments, developing and implementing programs to mitigate risk.

Trent obtained his law degree from McGeorge School of Law and also holds a Bachelor of Science from UC Davis. Prior to joining W. L. Butler in 2004, he worked for several prestigious law firms within the Bay Area. Trent's extensive legal and business experience continues to help guide and protect W. L. Butler.

Trent Morrow
General Counsel

 marketing@wlbutler.com

 linkedin.com/in/trent-morrow-2892a36

 (650) 361-1270

“Our success is not just defined by the projects we build. It is reflected in the long-term commitment to our clients, in our family of hard-working employees, and by generosity to the community. “