

PROJECT SUMMARY

This new 12-classroom elementary school features a media center, library, ground level art room and administrative center. State-of-the-art design incorporated yellow aluminum exterior panels and many added exposed wood elements.

Mid-Peninsula Jewish Day School

INDUSTRY: PRIVATE EDUCATION

Ground-up three-story, private elementary school

LOCATION: Palo Alto

OWNER: Mid-Peninsula Jewish Community

ARCHITECT: Simon Martin Vegue Winkelstein Morris

Related Information

AREAS OF EXPERTISE:

- Education

OFFICE:

- Redwood City

“Your team performed miracles for us under demanding conditions to deliver our project on-time and on-budget while providing a high level of craftsmanship in the construction of difficult architectural details. They were flexible enough to accommodate the constraints of the project, which included a hard deadline, a fixed and limited budget, and no-work days imposed by the traditional Jewish calendar.”

Len Lehmann, Board Member