

PROJECT SUMMARY

Scope required the upgrade of an unoccupied shell with new metal stud framed towers, cornice and a plaster façade with aluminum storefront and panels. The second phase involved moving an operational store into the completed space. Once half of the building was remodeled, the demising wall was demolished so the store could occupy the entire building.

West Marine

INDUSTRY: BOATING AND MARINE PARTS

A two phased project for a boat materials dealer

LOCATION: S. San Francisco
OWNER: West Marine
ARCHITECT: Patri Merker Architects
SIZE: 13,178 SF

Related Information

AREAS OF EXPERTISE:

- Retail
- Tenant Improvements

OFFICE:

- Redwood City